ORDNANCE CHIEF INDORSES PART OF

Five Arsenals to Adopt New Plan of Management.

BLOW AT UNION LABOR

A bombahell was dropped into the ranks of organized labor yesterday afternoon when Brig. Gen. Crozier, Chief of Ordnance of the War Department, who has just returned from a tour of inspection of the arsenal at Watertown. Mass, announced that the first part of the Taylor system relating to economic cheap as talk. management has proven eminently sat infactory and would be introduced at four other government arsenals.

While the first part of the Taylor "efficiecy system" is not the one that has incurred the despect ennity of the American Federation of Labor and affiliated organization, all unions have no different times taken a positive visual argainst if. The system will, of course, continue at Watertown.

With the introduction of the plans for reform will come also the use of tools which are recommended under the new system. This portion of the system adopted relates entirely to the saving of time and expense by the application of accounting principles to all work done in the arsenals. The work is so planned as to reduce to a minimum the amount of waste in material, saving, it has been employer.

Teat is Satisfactory.

The trial that has been given this part of the Taylor plan of management," said Gen. Crozier, "has been found eminently satisfactory at the Watertown Arsenal. It has convinced the officials of the War Department that it is a valuable, practical plan, and they have committee in connection with the convention of the National German-American Alliance heid at the New Wilson.

officials of the War Department that it is a valuable, practical plan, and they ill continue to use it. I do not believe that members of labor unions object to this plan except because of their fear that its adoption means the adoption of the plan, which more vitally affects the workingman. The arsenals in which the Taylor system of management is to be introduced are Watervilet, N. Y.; Rock Island, Ill.: Springfield, Mass, and Prankford, Pa. The system will, of course, continue at Watertown.

Capt. Hollinberger Action in Stone Divorce Case.

Police Capt. J. Thomas Hollinberger, of the First precinct, yesterday filed suit against Dr. James H. Stone and Sara A. Schley for 25,000 damages, growing out of the publication of an alleged li-belous article, which plaintiff avera deprives him of his good name and brings him into scandal and disrepute.

The article referred to is an affidavit alleged to have been made by Sara A. Schley in June last, having been pro-Schley in June last, having been procured as well by Dr. Stone, in which the affidavit says that on May 1 last, after the performance at a local theater, Miss Stone. Mrs. Schley, and Capt. Hollingtone went to a downtown hotel, where the police official was said to have engaged a private room and bought drinks; stes.

Writin' is gittin' t' be about as the police official was said to have engaged a private room and bought drinks; that they remained there until about midnight; that Mrs. Schley, left about and Mrs. Stone together, the captain stating he would see Mrs. Stone house and that she concented.

edge of her husband, Dr. James H. Stone.

It is also alleged by Mrs. Schley that Capt. Hollinberger frequently called on Mrs. Stone at her house in the absence of her husband, remaining there until about the time Dr. Stone would return, and that Capt. Hollinberger would bring her "lunch, fruit, salads, meats, beer, and other things."

August 16 last Mrs. Stone filed a suit for absolute divorce from James H. Stone, alleging infidelity and naming two co-respondents. In answer, Dr. Stone charged his wife with infidelity, and "that an officer of the police force was largely responsible for breaking up his (Stone's) home.
